REFUSED LICENSE

COURT TURNED DOWN HELLER'S APPLICATION FOR A SALOON.

DIDN'T HAVE TWO-THIRDS

Majority to the Petition—Case Up To Circuit Court and Will Be Heard By Judge Ellison Thursday.

The county court late Monday afternoon after hearing the testimony of several who signed the dramshop petition of W. A. Heller, to see if they were qualified as signers, denied the application as they claimed there was not the two-thirds majority to the petition. After the court had stricken out a number of signers as they thought that they were not qualified, there remained only eleven signers, and there were five remonstrators with the five other signers who owned bank stock, which the court decided were legal signers. The contention of the other side is that the bank stockholders are not legal signers.

Attorney T. A. Cummins for Mr. Heller, filed Tuesday, a mandamus suit against the county court and Judge Ellison after hearing the petition, ordered the alternative writ of mandamus issue returnable on Thursday, May 9 1912. The petition claims that the dramshop application of Heller had the necessary two-thirds majority and that he is entitled to the license. The matter will be taken to a higher court, it is thought, if an unfavorable opinion is given, so as the matter will be threshed out.

The denying of the license to Heller is another victory for the "drys" and when John Kane's license comes up in August, an effort will be made to put him out of the saloon business. It is understood that Mr. Kane will not apply for a dramshop license again, but that he will dispose of his saloon to another man, who will probably get a license as the block is "wet". The first victory for the "drys" was against Adolph Lippman and Mr. Lippman says that he is out of the saloon business in Maryville for good. Mr. Lippman is now manager of the Star Tobocco company an organization composed of Mr. Lippman, John Kirca, John Behm and Charles Buhler and is selling cigars and tobacco.

There were twenty-two signers to Heller's application and the eleven that the court thought were qualified were: C. B. Yeo, Adolph Lippman, C. J. Green Joe Blater, C. W. Siler, S. R Luces, Richard Kuchs, Theodore Blatzer, Fred Smith, Wm. Heller and W. J Staples. On the remonstrators petition were: John W. and Emery Airy, J. K. Sawyers, C. E. Stillwell, and Edward Otis, and the following bank stockholders, S. G. Gillam, G. L. Willey, S. H. Kemp, Omar Catterson and F. C. Conrad.

GAME WITH AMITY.

Normal To Play That Team Wednesday Afternoon—Adams Returned To School.

Baseball stock at the Normal took a great leap Tuesday when it was learned that Ed Adams, the demon slugger and prize outfielder of the Normal team in seasons past, will return to school Tuesday evening. The teachers outfield has been in a bad way from the very first of the season and when Vandersloot's injury necessitated the shifting of Taylor to the infield the move left a gap in the outer gardens that could not be filled. But with Vandersloot returned from his injury, and with Adams in a Normal uniform, Coach Moore will present a strong line-up for the game Wednesday afternoon with Amity College. The contest which will be staged at the Normal ball lot, will begin promptly at 4:15 o'clock.

BOARD'S FIRST MOVE

CITY ENGINEER EMPLOYED FOR DRILLING CITY'S TEST WELLS.

TO SEND FOR MACHINERY

Actual Drilling to Start as Soon as Possible on Beal Land—Prospects Favorable for Adequate Supply.

At a meeting of the board of public works held Monday afternoon, City Engineer F. L. Flynt was employed to make arrangements for testing for well water on the Beal land in east Maryville, which the city has an option on, and to oversee the work. Mr. Flynt will at once send for the necessary tools and machinery and hopes to be able to start work within the next few weeks. Mr. Flynt will let the work out by contract.

Mr. Flynt wrote recently to H. A. Buehler, state geologist for some data and he stated that an adequate supply of pure water by deep drilling for Maryville looked good and that the best criterion was probably the well drilled here several years ago on the Beal land. The letter of Mr. Buehler to Mr. Flynt follows:

"Probably the well drilled at Maryville some years ago will be your best criterion regarding the possibility of obtaining an adequate supply of fresh water from the formation underlying northwest Missouri. As you probably know, the Coal Measures have a maximum thickness in that area of about 1600 feet and frequently the west water is found in the Mississippian formations underlying the Pennsylvanian or Coal Measures. Enclosed you will find a record of the Maryville drill hole. This is a 4 inch hole and was cased some 300 feet to solid rock. I understand that a vein of good water was struck at 600 feet. A larger hole could be drilled easily to that depth and would no doubt give the city a very pure water supply. I understand that this well is owned by Miss Alice Beal and is located on the west side of the road leading north from the Burlington Railway station in the N. E. ¼ of S. E. ¼, Sec. 17, T. 64, R. 35."

RUN FOR THEIR LIFE

ERVIN YOUNG AND OTIS WOODWARD HAD EXCITING TIME.

THREE FIRES IN 1 NIGHT

Hotel at Lenox, Iowa, Destroyed By Fire Tuesday Morning by Third of a Series of Fires.

The Lenox House of Lenox, Iowa, a brick building containing thirty-three rooms, burned to the ground at 3:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. Loss, $10,000. The proprietor, Charles Ely, carried $6,000 insurance.

The fire started at 9:30 Monday evening in the laundry room and was extinguished, it was thought. At 10:30 the fire broke out again and it took considerable work to put it out, and the fire fighters thought sure their work was thoroughly done. But at 3:15 the flames rose silently in every part of the building. No one was hurt as the two previous outbreaks had so alarmed the people in the hotel that everyone was prepared to leave the building at the first alarm.

The postoffice and Masonic temple stood next to the hotel and a good fight had to be put up to save them from burning.

Lenox lost its Burlington depot by fire during an electrical storm a few weeks ago.

C. C. Young and his son, Ervin Young, and Otis Woodward of this city are employed at Lenox, where Mr. Young, has the contract for the new public school building under course of construction. Mr. Young was in Kansas City on a business trip at the time of the fire and passed through Maryville Tuesday noon on his way to Lenox. Mrs. Young was informed of the fire and she called her son at Lenox during the noon hour to satisfy herself of his safety. He and Mr. Woodward occupied roms on the third floor, he said. They had been called at 10 and 12 o'clock on account of the fire, and had retired each time assured the fire was out. They undressed and went to bed at twelve o'clock and when they were called at 3 o'clock he said the building was wrapped in flames and the stairways on fire, and they had to run for their lives, not being able to save a scrap of anything.

"THE WAGES OF SIN."

Rev. Crowe Told of Reward to Saint and Sinner Monday Night.

The meetings at the M. E. Church, South were well attended Monday night. The text for Evangelist Crowe's sermon was: "The Wages of Sin is Death, but the Gift of God is Eternal Life." Rom. 6:23.

"The text is God's judgment given beforehand that we may profit thereby.

"Death is separation spiritual and eternal death is final and eternal separation from God.

"There are two kinds of sin—sins of omission and sins of commission.

"There are more souls lost because of sins of omission than because of those of commission.

"To fail to accept Christ is really to reject him.

"Failure to open your door to a waiting guest is a great insult. Your refusal to let Christ into your heart and life is a mortal soul-damning sin.

"The sinner works for wages and will get all that is promised—Death.

"The child of God is an object of grace and receives gifts of infinite value.

"The lost soul gets only what he deserves, while the saved man gets freely that which he could never merit."

Atlas McGinness, a Skidmore Young Man, Recovering From Serious Operation in St. Joseph Hospital.

Atlas McGinness, a brother of Wayman McGinness of Skidmore, suffered the amputation of his left leg in a hospital of St. Joseph Friday of last week, Dr. Geiger and other St. Joseph surgeons being his physicians. The young man is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. McGinness, who is a young man about twenty-one years old, had been suffering for several months from severe pains in his left knee, that only inconvenienced him occasionally, went to the Skidmore physicians about ten days ago to seek relief from his suffering, supposing it to be rheumatism. He had worked on a farm all the time until that time. The Skidmore physicians advised him to go to St. Joseph where he could receive a more thorough examination, as they concluded there must be a disease of the bone. Accompanied by two of his brothers he went to St. Joseph last Wednesday and was examined by several surgeons. They found the joint honeycombed, and pronounced it cancer of the bone. His only chance for recovery was amputation, and the leg was cut off just above the knee.

OPERATIONS AT GOVERNMENT BUILDING BROUGHT TO A HALT.

$2.00 A DAY ASKED FOR

Strikers Say They Cannot Live on $1.60, While Contractors Say They Cannot Pay More for Labor.

A strike in Maryville. Eight workmen who had been employed by W. D. Lovell, the contractor of the new postoffice building, struck for higher wages when they commenced work Tuesday morning and when their terms were not accepted by J. R. Edwards, the foreman of the work and who is looking after the interests of Lovell & Co., they left the place. The strikers had been getting 20 cents an hour and working eight hours a day, and they want 25 cents an hour, or $2 a day.

One of the strikers said Tuesday that all laboring men were receiving $2 a day in Maryville and that they could not afford to work for less. They spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Edwards, the foreman, but said that they will not return to their job unless their terms were accepted.

Mr. Edwards in speaking of the strike, said that when Lovell was figuring on the contract for the postoffice building in Maryville, data was at once secured on all local conditions and that the price of labor was given at 20 cents an hour. He said that he was not going to do anything but what was fair and right, but he could not accede to the demands of the strikers. He had been instructed to pay that for his labor here, since that has always been the price they have been receiving.

The workmen were still out this afternoon and their places had not been filled. So there was no work at the postoffice building Tuesday, only that of John Gray, who has the job of excavating the site.

ESTES WAS PAROLED.

Had Been Given A Heavy Sentence for Violating the Local Option Laws.

E. C. Estes of Burlington Junction, who was indicted by the February grand jury on five counts for violating the local option laws, and given a sentence of six months in the county jail on each of four counts and a fine of $50 on one count, was paroled by Judge Ellison Monday afternoon for good cause shown and that he will not again engage in the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors within this jurisdiction, and paying all the costs. Estes has been in the county jail since he received his sentence in the first part of March.

Many petitions were sent to Judge Ellison urging him to parole the young man. They were signed by many of the prominent people of Burlington Junction and that section of the county, where he has been residing. Estes was well though of in that community and this is the first time he has been in trouble.

WERE RACE OF CLAY EATERS

French Savants Have Proof That Prehistoric Parisians Ate Earth as a Food.

A French savant, Dr. Marcel Baudouin, has discovered that Parisians at one time were clay eaters. The present generation, of course, is excluded. The geophagous Parisians were prehistoric ones. How he discovered all these facts has been explained by him to the Academy of Science. The region of Paris, he says, was inhabited by tribes that made a practice of mixing clay with their food. When they had no other food they simply ate the earth. Montmatre clay, it seems, was particularly nutritive. The sand in the bed of the Seine was an excellent digestive. Children were nursed and brought up on both these delicacies between the ages of three and seven.

Many of these vigorous prehistoric babies had already worn out their teeth. It was this very fact that proves that they were a geophagous race. The remains of their teeth show that they were worn and polished by eating clay and sand, just like the teeth of the geophagous or earth-eating tribes of Africa and the Pacific ocean. We know that even in our own day clay-eaters who have degenerated from civilization are to be found in North and South Carolina. Their teeth present exactly the same characteristics as those of the prehistoric Parisians, who are, therefore, proved to have been fond of a vol-au-vent d'argile, or curried river sand. Certain clays, adds the professor, are proved to have excellent dietary properties, but he does not go so far as to recommend any particular dish for present-day Parisians.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER, LaPorte, Ind.

Sugar—Dr. H. W. Wiley, the government food champion and expert, in the course of an examination before a congressional committee, lately advised that people should eat more common yellow sugar, and spoke in high terms of beet sugar as pure and wholesome.

There are many unsophisticated persons who are possessed of the idea that sugar is unwholesome, and that it is dreadfully expensive, when the reverse is the truth in both cases. Sugar is perhaps the most fattening of all foods, and hence, when judiciously used, quite healthful, and by sugar all pure sweets are meant. Moreover sugar is the least expensive, in proportion to nutritive strength, of all manner of food. The prejudice against it, in both the matters of expense and unwholesomeness, is of puritanical origin; that kind of bigotry that would chide a child for dancing around and giving any evidence of happiness. The puritanical idea of original sin is that whatever a child cries for must be bad for it to have. Even yet, there are rural districts where the head of the family groans every time a pound of sugar is purchased for the house and whines over the transaction as the fostering of an unwholesome luxury. However, it is said that there are places in obscure regions of the country where many insist on voting for General Jackson for president every time they go to the polls.

The wave of general information, however, is increasing all the time, and before it every vestige of bigotry, superstition and common ignorance, will eventually be swept away.

As to sugar, the government of the United States buys pure candy by the ton, for the use of the army, alone. Especially for the army in such foreign possessions as the Philippines, etc. This is sold at cost to the soldiers in the "canteens"—stores at the army posts equivalent, and more, to what was known before, in the army, as the sutler's store. The sutler, however, sold his goods to the soldiers at outrageous profits, while in the canteen Uncle Sam is the sutler who purchases in vast quantities, at greatly reduced rates, and gives the soldiers the benefit of this, charging them nothing beyond cost, for anything that is needful to them.

There is more of a craving in the tropics, for sweets, and in this, nature again shows her providence, for in those regions sweets are produced more abundantly.

In one of these lectures, published some years ago, Dr. Reeder, head of the Home Health club, said:

"In short, sugar is, after meat, bread and butter, easily our next most important and necessary food. You can put the matter to a test very easily. Just leave off the pie, pudding or other desserts at your lunch or mid-day meal. You will be astonished to find how quickly you will feel "empty" again, and how "unfinished" the meal will seem. You can't get any workingman to accept a pail without pie in it. And he is absolutely right. The only thing that can take the place of sugar here is beer or wine. It is a significant fact that the free lunch counters run in connection with bars furnish every imaginable thing except sweets. Even the restaurants and lunch grills attached to saloons or bars often refuse to serve desserts of any sort. They know their business. The more sugar and sweets a man takes at a meal the less alcohol he wants. Conversely, nearly every drinking man will tell you that he has lost his taste for sweets. The more candy a nation consumes the less alcohol."

The only trouble as to candy, and other sweets, for children or grown folks, as to that, is that the sweets are often eaten in too large quantities and at the wrong time. If taken after meals it is good and wholesome, but the same quantity and quality taken an hour before a meal may cause serious disorders in the stomach, and it will certainly affect, deleteriously, the appetite for other foods.

A good authority has said: "Give children plenty of pure candy, taffy and butterscotch and they will have little need of cod liver oil."

Club Notes.

Dear Doctor: Will you please tell me what tuberculosis of the blood is, what are the symptoms, and what can be done for it, and is it curable?

L. W. C.

There is no such condition as specific tuberculosis of the blood known to medical science. There may be germs of tuberculosis in the blood but they come from some specific portion of the body. The recognized places in which tuberculosis is found are as follows: —Lungs, (in the adult) 2—lymphatic glands, bones and joints (in children), 3—intestines, 4—peritoneum, 5—kidneys, 6—brains, 7—spleen, 8—liver, 9—generative organs, 10—pericordium, 11—heart. If treatment of the proper kind is applied promptly most cases are curable. In my Home Health Club book Vol 2, I have devoted several chapters to the subject and described the best and most practical methods of home treatment and means of precaution. All of the pages of an entire issue of this paper would be required in which to give a comprehensive answer to all your brief but pertinent questions. Would suggest that you send for the book and study the subject direct.

Dear Doctor:

Is there anything that will reduce fat; am very fat around shoulders, neck and bust. M. B.

Live on buttermilk for three months, one half pint every two hours while awake. No, you will not starve, won't even get hungry, but you will get strong, yes strong enough to take a rough and tumble with anyone who is foolish enough to laugh at you. A piece of zweibach three times daily at the regular mealtime will be a help, but it must be eaten dry and chewed until it becomes liquid in the mouth. While you grow strong and well, the fat will melt away and you will again be normal. Surplus fat is dangerous burden and altogether unsightly. Get rid of it. The cause is twofold; Too much food, not enough chewing.

All readers of this publication are at liberty to write for information pertaining to the subject of health at any time. Address all communications to the Home Health Club, La Porte, Indiana, U. S. A., with name and address in full and at least four cents in postage.

Both Roosevelt and Taft Claim County Which Will Decide Primary.

CLARK AND WILSON BEAT HARMON

Democratic Voters Leave Ohioan Far in the Rear—Baltimore Gave Missourian More Than Other Two Combined.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—Speaker Champ Clark and Theodore Roosevelt carried the Maryland primaries on the face of incomplete returns received up to midnight from all the counties of the state. The indicated vote was: Republicans: Roosevelt 66, Taft 63. Democrats: Clark 69, Wilson, 33, Harmon 4, uncertain 23.

Majority necessary to control the state convention, 65.

At midnight both the Roosevelt and Taft campaign committees were claiming the five delegates from Prince George county and indications were that this county would decide the Maryland Republican primary.

Roosevelt and Clark were well ahead in the early returns, but later the contest between Taft and Roosevelt became close.

Harmon Gets One County.

The Democrtic fight showed that Clark and Wilson were far ahead of Harmon, who was sure of only one county and four state delegates.

Clark and Roosevelt leaped into the lead early with complete delegations from Baltimore city, which gave them each 28 delegates. Clark's preferential vote in this city was greater than that of Harmon and Wilson combined. He defeated Wilson by nearly three to one, and the New Jersey governor was ahead of Gov. Harmon by two to one.

The small vote polled by Gov. Harmon removed the possibility that the Democratic fight might be settled in the state convention. Had none of the Democratic candidates won a majority of the delegates, the delegates instructed for the candidate with the smallest following would have been free to swing to one of the other candidates and control the convention after the first ballot.

Didn't Tabulate Vote.

The popular preferential vote was lost sight of and probably will not be tabulated immediately. Under the Maryland law the affiliated voters of the two parties instructed the delegates to the state convention by the preference vote of each county. A majority of this vote in a county instructed that county's delegates accordingly.

The delegates to the state convention must vote as instructed for a solid delegation to the national convention. This means that the successful candidate carries to the national convention 16 votes in a block, bound by the law to stand by him as long as in their conscientious judgment there is a possibility of his being nominated.

CANDIDATES FLOCK TO OHIO

Taft, Roosevelt, Bryan and Harmon, all Speechmaking in State at Once.

Columbus, O., May 7.—With President Taft and William J. Bryan in Ohio the state headquarters of the various presidential candidates here took on unusual activity in preparation for the big things that will happen in Ohio politics in the next two weeks. The president, Roosevelt, Bryan and Harmon will make speeches through the state before the state-wide primaries May 21.

The Wilson headquarters will have general direction of the Bryan speaking tour, which will begin at Chillicothe, in opposition to the presidential candidacy of Gov. Harmon. Roosevelt headquarters are preparing for the coming of Col. Roosevelt.

It is said Gov. Harmon will take the stump.

Cheyenne, Wyo., May 7.—The war department ordered the Union Pacific railroad to rush 150 stock-box and flat cars to the army post at Fort D. A. Russell for use in shipping horses and equipment of the Ninth cavalry, which is waiting orders to proceed to the Mexican border.

Orders were received later to seize all empty flat, box and stock cars, no matter to whom consigned, and send them to the fort. Thirty-five stock cars have been delivered already. It is expected that 50 more will be obtained before morning. Scouts from the fort have been all day rounding up the men.

Mexico City, May 7.—Gen. Huerta, federal commander at Torreon, started his troops on the march northward to meet the main body of rebels, under Orozco and fight what, it is believed, will be the deciding battle of the revolution.

Marion S. McCarthy, the American consular agent at Alamos, resigned and left for the United States. The reason for his resignation is said to have been rumors of an impending anti-American demonstration.

GREAT WRITER IN JEOPARDY

Charles Dickens Once Threatened With Arrest for Attempting to Pass Counterfeit Money.

One night when Dickens had retired at Gad's Hill he found he could not sleep. So he got up, dressed and determined to walk to London, about thirty miles away. He reached the suburbs early in the morning and applied at an early coffee house for some refreshments. When he had finished he gave the proprietor a sovereign, the smallest coin he had with him.

"It's a bad un," said the man, biting at it and trying to twist it in all directions, "and I shall give you in charge."

The coin did have a suspicious look. Dickens had carried some substance in his pocket which had oxidized it. Seeing that matters looked awkward, he said,

"But I am Charles Dickens!"

"Come, that won't do; any man could say he was Charles Dickens. How do I know?"

The man had been victimized a week previous and would take no more chances. At length Dickens suggested that they go to a chemist's and have the coin tested. A chemist was finally found when the shops had opened. The chemist immediately recognized the novelist, in spite of his dusty appearance, and the coffee house keeper was satisfactorily convinced that he had not been entertaining a confidence man.

Daring Man Threw Metaphorical Brick Into Assemblage and Didn't Wait for Effects.

"Shall we not carry on this fight until we have mere man reduced to a hemipode?" said the suffragette orator.

"We shall. But what is a hemipode, anyway?" spoke up one of the assemblage.

"The black-necked hemipode is a bird about the size of a sparrow that lives in Madagascar. A friend out there sent me a pair of them. The male hemipode alone sits on the nest of eggs and hatches the young and takes care of them until grown up," the orator explained.

"Wouldn't that be lovely?" exclaimed one of the audience.

"There are birds down in South America called groove-billed aris. They build a large communal nest of sticks, and several females sit on the eggs in company, so that their conversation need not stop because of hatching. I'd like to have a vote as to which is the more popular," said a daring man near the door.

But he didn't wait for a vote.—New York Sun.

The Blackstone Vacuum Massage Machine

For Perfect Face, Scalp or Body Massage in the Home

BLACKHEADS. These unsightly blotches upon the complexion are almost instantly removed by application of the vacuum cup. The waste matter is drawn out of the pores and the blood is circulated freely, building new skin tissue to erase the large pore openings, and consequently eliminating the opportunity for further waste to gather. The relief is permanent.

PIMPLES. Many a beautiful skin texture is made ugly and unsightly by the presence of pimples and eruptions. The skin, if properly cared for, carries off all such matter through the action of the respiratory pores. Open these millions of organs and the eruptions cease, as the waste is carried off without being permitted to gather in clusters, forming the disagreeable pimples, etc. Such complexion defects are wholly unnecessary, as THE BLACKSTONE VACUUM MASSAGER immediately opens all pores and stimulates the skin to its normal, healthy action.

WRINKLES. These are commonly called evidences of care—more often you will find it to be carelessness, instead. The flesh tissues beneath the skin, being robbed of regular and sufficient blood supply, waste away and naturally leave the skin to crease up into wrinkles. Firm, well nourished flesh never wrinkles nor sags into unsightly folds. THE BLACKSTONE VACUUM treatment brings blood to the shriveled flesh tissues and recuperates them, filling out and beautifying the skin with firm, well rounded lines and healthy, radiating complexion.

Let me Explain the Machine fully--It will cost you nothing to investigate

KANSAS GOT RAIN, WIND AND HAIL

Wild Rumors of Cyclones Could Not be Substantiated.

NEAR CLOUDBURST AT ABILENE

Three Inches of Water Fell in Two Hours—Smoky Hill River Rising a Foot an Hour—Live Stock Lost.

Topeka, May 7.—Eastern and central Kansas got a heavy rain late in the afternoon. It was almost a cloudburst at Abilene, where three inches of rain fell in two hours. A rain of half an inch or better is reported generally east of McPherson and Salina and through the northern and eastern tiers of counties.

The rain came up with a high wind and did slight damage to trees and more to telegraph and telephone lines.

The wind was gusty and blew at 40 miles an hour at times, and then dropped to almost a calm.

A dozen towns were reported devastated by tornadoes but the reports could not be substantiaed. The railroad and telephone companies made every effort to verify the rumors, but learned of no serious damage.

Some hail accompanied both the morning and the night storms, but it did no damage. Not even a window was broken, and gardeners said vegetable patches were not damaged.

Smoky Hill River Rising.

Salina, Kan., May 7.—The Smoky Hill river began rising rapidly here as a result of the heavy rains and stood ten feet above normal and was rising a foot an hour. Many cattle and hogs are being carried down stream by the flood.

Heavy Hail Hurts Fruit.

Junction City, Kan., May 7.—Almost an inch of rain fell here within 30 minutes. It was accompanied by one of the heaviest hailstorms in many years. The fruit is believed to have been damaged, but the wheat is unharmed.

Arkansas Tops Its Banks.

Sterling, Kan., May 7.—An inch of rain fell here. Ten miles southwest, near Thurber, the hail was heavier, and damaged the fruit. The Arkansas river is rising and will be out of its banks by morning.

VETERANS MET DEATH IN WRECK

Train Bearing Confederates to Reunion at Macon, Ga., Plunges Over Embankment.

Hattiesburg, Miss., May 7.—Bearing war scarred Confederate veterans bound to their nnual reunion at Macon, Ga., a special train plunged over an embankment near Eastabutchie, Miss., killing 11 persons and injuring 40. Only four of the dead have been identified. The others are two babies and three others still in the wreckage, believed to be veterans. The bodies of the identified dead were brought to Hattiesburg.

The locomotive was nearing a trestle when the engine seemed to lurch into the air and plunge down the embankment. It was followed by a baggage car, a day coach and three tourist sleepers.

The three remaining tourist sleepers were turned into a hospital and morgue. A special relief train was rushed from Hattiesburg, arriving within an hour.

FILMS TO SHOW NATURE'S WORK

EDISON WORKING ON SERIES FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES.

School Children of Future Will See Processes of Nature and Chemical Changes.

Orange, N. J., May 7.—Thomas A. Edison expects to spend $3,000,000 and devote eight years to the work of perfecting a repertoire of educational films that will meet the requirements he has set to make the moving picture useful in the school room. A brief story of what the inventor has done so far and will do in the future was told to the New England society by Arthur D. Chandler, president of the Orange board of education.

He is confident that the moving picture film is destined to become an indispensable adjunct to the school room. Edison has already had a number of films made, among them one which shows, magnified millions of times, the process of chemical crystallization of certain substances.

To watch the process as shown by that film, according to Mr. Chandler, is to be deeply impressed with the fact that there is something controlling even the action of inorganic matter, and he said he felt that the scientists in their searching might yet find out God.

Edison expects to send into all corners of the earth gathering material for his films. When his task is finished the pupils of the future will have with activities of the world and of nature that adults today have not even dreamed of.

International Secretary Gives Notice Law Violators Must Pay Their Own Fines.

Chicago, May 7.—Quiet marked the freight handlers' strike in Chicago. The 5,000 men who quit work heeded the request of their leaders and remained away from the freight houses.

"Come to your meetings every morning and come sober," the international secretary, J. J. Flynn told a meeting of strikers. "You can't win by throwing bricks and coupling pins. Take your wives and babies to the parks and enjoy a vacation. If any man is arrested for violating the law, he will have to pay his own fine. You are in the right, and you will win; but you must win throught your intelligence."

REFUSED LICENSE

COURT TURNED DOWN HELLER'S APPLICATION FOR A SALOON.

DIDN'T HAVE TWO-THIRDS

Majority to the Petition—Case Up To Circuit Court and Will Be Heard By Judge Ellison Thursday.

The county court late Monday afternoon after hearing the testimony of several who signed the dramshop petition of W. A. Heller, to see if they were qualified as signers, denied the application as they claimed there was not the two-thirds majority to the petition. After the court had stricken out a number of signers as they thought that they were not qualified, there remained only eleven signers, and there were five remonstrators with the five other signers who owned bank stock, which the court decided were legal signers. The contention of the other side is that the bank stockholders are not legal signers.

Attorney T. A. Cummins for Mr. Heller, filed Tuesday, a mandamus suit against the county court and Judge Ellison after hearing the petition, ordered the alternative writ of mandamus issue returnable on Thursday, May 9 1912. The petition claims that the dramshop application of Heller had the necessary two-thirds majority and that he is entitled to the license. The matter will be taken to a higher court, it is thought, if an unfavorable opinion is given, so as the matter will be threshed out.

The denying of the license to Heller is another victory for the "drys" and when John Kane's license comes up in August, an effort will be made to put him out of the saloon business. It is understood that Mr. Kane will not apply for a dramshop license again, but that he will dispose of his saloon to another man, who will probably get a license as the block is "wet". The first victory for the "drys" was against Adolph Lippman and Mr. Lippman says that he is out of the saloon business in Maryville for good. Mr. Lippman is now manager of the Star Tobocco company an organization composed of Mr. Lippman, John Kirca, John Behm and Charles Buhler and is selling cigars and tobacco.

There were twenty-two signers to Heller's application and the eleven that the court thought were qualified were: C. B. Yeo, Adolph Lippman, C. J. Green Joe Binter, C. W. Siler, S. R. Lucas, Richard Kuchs, Theodore Blatter, Fred Smith, Wm. Heller and W. J. Staples. On the remonstrators petition were: John W. and Emery Airy, J. K. Sawyers, C. E. Stillwell, and Edward Otis, and the following bank stockholders, S. G. Gillam, G. L. Wilfley, S. H. Kemp, Omar Catterson and F. C. Conrad.

GAME WITH AMITY.

Normal To Play That Team Wednesday Afternoon—Adams Returned To School.

Baseball stock at the Normal took a great leap Tuesday when it was learned that Ed Adams, the demon slugger and prize outfielder of the Normal team in seasons past, will return to school Tuesday evening. The teachers outfield has been in a bad way from the very first of the season and when Vandersloot's injury necessitated the shifting of Taylor to the infield the move left a gap in the outer gardens that could not be filled. But with Vandersloot returned from his injury, and with Adams in a Normal uniform, Coach Moore will present a strong line-up for the game Wednesday afternoon with Amity College. The contest which will be staged at the Normal ball lot, will begin promptly at 4:15 o'clock.

BOARD'S FIRST MOVE

CITY ENGINEER EMPLOYED FOR DRILLING CITY'S TEST WELLS.

TO SEND FOR MACHINERY

Actual Drilling to Start as Soon as Possible on Beal Land—Prospects Favorable for Adequate Supply.

At a meeting of the board of public works held Monday afternoon, City Engineer F. L. Flynt was employed to make arrangements for testing for well water on the Beal land in east Maryville, which the city has an option on, and to oversee the work. Mr. Flynt will at once send for the necessary tools and machinery and hopes to be able to start work within the next few weeks. Mr. Flynt will let the work out by contract.

Mr. Flynt wrote recently to H. A. Buehler, state geologist for some data and he stated that an adequate supply of pure water by deep drilling for Maryville looked good and that the best criterion was probably the well drilled here several years ago on the Beal land. The letter of Mr. Buehler to Mr. Flynt follows:

"Probably the well drilled at Maryville some years ago will be your best criterion regarding the possibility of obtaining an adequate supply of fresh water from the formation underlying northwest Missouri. As you probably know, the Coal Measures have a maximum thickness in that area of about 1600 feet and frequently the west water is found in the Mississippian formations underlying the Pennsylvanian or Coal Measures. Enclosed you will find a record of the Maryville drill hole. This is a 4 inch hole and was cased some 300 feet to solid rock. I understand that a vein of good water was struck at 600 feet. A larger hole could be drilled easily to that depth and would no doubt give the city a very pure water supply. I understand that this well is owned by Miss Alice Beal and is located on the west side of the road leading north from the Burlington Railway station in the N. E. ¼ of S. E. ¼, Sec. 17, T. 64, R. 35."

RUN FOR THEIR LIFE

ERVIN YOUNG AND OTIS WOODWARD HAD EXCITING TIME.

THREE FIRES IN 1 NIGHT

Hotel at Lenox, Iowa, Destroyed By Fire Tuesday Morning by Third of a Series of Fires.

The Lenox House of Lenox, Iowa, a brick building containing thirty-three rooms, burned to the ground at 3:15 o'clock Tuesday morning. Loss, $10,000. The proprietor, Charles Ely, carried $6,000 insurance.

The fire started at 9:30 Monday evening in the laundry room and was extinguished, it was thought. At 10:30 the fire broke out again and it took considerable work to put it out, and the fire fighters thought sure their work was thoroughly done. But at 3:15 the flames rose silently in every part of the building. No one was hurt as the two previous outbreaks had so alarmed the people in the hotel that everyone was prepared to leave the building at the first alarm.

The postoffice and Masonic temple stood next to the hotel and a good fight had to be put up to save them from burning.

Lenox lost its Burlington depot by fire during an electrical storm a few weeks ago.

C. C. Young and his son, Ervin Young, and Otis Woodward of this city are employed at Lenox, where Mr. Young, has the contract for the new public school building under course of construction. Mr. Young was in Kansas City on a business trip at the time of the fire and passed through Maryville Tuesday noon on his way to Lenox. Mrs. Young was informed of the fire and she called her son at Lenox during the noon hour to satisfy herself of his safety. He and Mr. Woodward occupied roms on the third floor, he said. They had been called at 10 and 12 o'clock on account of the fire, and had retired each time assured the fire was out. They undressed and went to bed at twelve o'clock and when they were called at 3 o'clock he said the building was wrapped in flames and the stairways on fire, and they had to run for their lives, not being able to save a scrap of anything.

"THE WAGES OF SIN."

Rev. Crowe Told of Reward to Saint and Sinner Monday Night.

The meetings at the M. E. Church, South were well attended Monday night. The text for Evangelist Crowe's sermon was: "The Wages of Sin is Death, but the Gift of God is Eternal Life." Rom. 6:23.

"The text is God's judgment given beforehand that we may profit thereby.

"Death is separation spiritual and eternal death is final and eternal separation from God.

"There are two kinds of sin—sins of omission and sins of commission.

"There are more souls lost because of sins of omission than because of those of commission.

"To fail to accept Christ is really to reject him.

"Failure to open your door to a waiting guest is a great insult. Your refusal to let Christ into your heart and life is a mortal soul-damning sin.

"The sinner works for wages and will get all that is promised—Death.

"The child of God is an object of grace and receives gifts of infinite value.

"The lost soul gets only what he deserves, while the saved man gets freely that which he could never merit."

Mrs. S. G. Gasher of Burlington Junction came to Maryville Monday for a few day's visit with Mrs. W. H. Brown.

Charles Still, living four miles northeast of Maryville, went to St. Joseph Tuesday morning, where he will be employed on a sand boat.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday by Recorder Wray to Ova Heflin and Marguerite McElroy of Ravenwood.

Mrs. Sarah Renshaw left for her home in Purdin, Mo., Monday [illegible] visit since December [illegible] Their [illegible] tives here.

Atlas McGinness, a Skidmore Young Man, Recovering From Serious Operation in St. Joseph Hospital.

Atlas McGinness, a brother of Wayman McGinness of Skidmore, suffered the amputation of his left leg in a hospital of St. Joseph Friday of last week, Dr. Geiger and other St. Joseph surgeons being his physicians. The young man is doing as well as can be expected. Mr. McGinness, who is a young man about twenty-one years old, had been suffering for several months from severe pains in his left knee, that only inconvenienced him occasionally, went to the Skidmore physicians about ten days ago to seek relief from his suffering, supposing it to be rheumatism. He had worked on a farm all the time until that time. The Skidmore physicians advised him to go to St. Joseph where he could receive a more thorough examination, as they concluded there must be a disease of the bone. Accompanied by two of his brothers he went to St. Joseph last Wednesday and was examined by several surgeons. They found the joint honeycombed, and pronounced it cancer of the bone. His only chance for recovery was amputation, and the leg was cut off just above the knee.

OPERATIONS AT GOVERNMENT BUILDING BROUGHT TO A HALT.

$2.00 A DAY ASKED FOR

Strikers Say They Cannot Live on $1.60, While Contractors Say They Cannot Pay More for Labor.

A strike in Maryville. Eight workmen who had been employed by W. D. Lovell, the contractor of the new postoffice building, struck for higher wages when they commenced work Tuesday morning and when their terms were not accepted by J. R. Edwards, the foreman of the work and who is looking after the interests of Lovell & Co., they left the place. The strikers had been getting 20 cents an hour and working eight hours a day, and they want 25 cents an hour, or $2 a day.

One of the strikers said Tuesday that all laboring men were receiving $2 a day in Maryville and that they could not afford to work for less. They spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Edwards, the foreman, but said that they will not return to their job unless their terms were accepted.

Mr. Edwards in speaking of the strike, said that when Lovell was figuring on the contract for the postoffice building in Maryville, data was at once secured on all local conditions and that the price of labor was given at 20 cents an hour. He said that he was not going to do anything but what was fair and right, but he could not accede to the demands of the strikers. He had been instructed to pay that for his labor here, since that has always been the price they have been receiving.

The workmen were still out this afternoon and their places had not been filled. So there was no work at the postoffice building Tuesday, only that of John Gray, who has the job of excavating the site.

ESTES WAS PAROLED.

Had Been Given A Heavy Sentence for Violating the Local Option Laws.

E. C. Estes of Burlington Junction, who was indicted by the February grand jury on five counts for violating the local option laws, and given a sentence of six months in the county jail on each of four counts and a fine of $50 on one count, was paroled by Judge Ellison Monday afternoon for good cause shown and that he will not again engage in the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquors within this jurisdiction, and paying all the costs. Estes has been in the county jail since he received his sentence in the first part of March.

Many petitions were sent to Judge Ellison urging him to parole the young man. They were signed by many of the prominent people of Burlington Junction and that section of the county, where he has been residing. Estes was well though of in that community and this is the first time he has been in trouble.

WERE RACE OF CLAY EATERS

French Savants Have Proof That Prehistoric Parisians Ate Earth as a Food.

A French savant, Dr. Marcel Baudouin, has discovered that Parisians at one time were clay eaters. The present generation, of course, is excluded. The geophagous Parisians were prehistoric ones. How he discovered all these facts has been explained by him to the Academy of Science. The region of Paris, he says, was inhabited by tribes that made a practice of mixing clay with their food. When they had no other food they simply ate the earth. Montmatre clay, it seems, was particularly nutritive. The sand in the bed of the Seine was an excellent digestive. Children were nursed and brought up on both these delicacies between the ages of three and seven.

Many of these vigorous prehistoric babies had already worn out their teeth. It was this very fact that proves that they were a geophagous race. The remains of their teeth show that they were worn and polished by eating clay and sand, just like the teeth of the geophagous or earth-eating tribes of Africa and the Pacific ocean. We know that even in our own day clay-eaters who have degenerated from civilization are to be found in North and South Carolina. Their teeth present exactly the same characteristics as those of the prehistoric Parisians, who are, therefore, proved to have been fond of a vol-au-vent d'argile, or curried river sand. Certain clays, adds the professor, are proved to have excellent dietary properties, but he does not go so far as to recommend any particular dish for present-day Parisians.

Home Health Club

By DR. DAVID H. REEDER, LaPorte, Ind.

Sugar—Dr. H. W. Wiley, the government food champion and expert, in the course of an examination before a congressional committee, lately advised that people should eat more common yellow sugar, and spoke in high terms of beet sugar as pure and wholesome.

There are many unsophisticated persons who are possessed of the idea that sugar is unwholesome, and that it is dreadfully expensive, when the reverse is the truth in both cases. Sugar is perhaps the most fattening of all foods, and hence, when judiciously used, quite healthful, and by sugar all pure sweets are meant. Moreover sugar is the least expensive, in proportion to nutritive strength, of all manner of food. The prejudice against it, in both the matters of expense and unwholesomeness, is of puritanical origin; that kind of bigotry that would chide a child for dancing around and giving any evidence of happiness. The puritanical idea of original sin is that whatever a child cries for must be bad for it to have. Even yet, there are rural districts where the head of the family groans every time a pound of sugar is purchased for the house and whines over the transaction as the fostering of an unwholesome luxury. However, it is said that there are places in obscure regions of the country where many insist on voting for General Jackson for president every time they go to the polls.

The wave of general information, however, is increasing all the time, and before it every vestige of bigotry, superstition and common ignorance, will eventually be swept away.

As to sugar, the government of the United States buys pure candy by the ton, for the use of the army, alone. Especially for the army in such foreign possessions as the Philippines, etc. This is sold at cost to the soldiers in the "canteens"—stores at the army posts equivalent, and more, to what was known before, in the army, as the sutler's store. The sutler, however, sold his goods to the soldiers at outrageous profits, while in the canteen Uncle Sam is the sutler who purchases in vast quantities, at greatly reduced rates, and gives the soldiers the benefit of this, charging them nothing beyond cost, for anything that is needful to them.

There is more of a craving in the tropics, for sweets, and in this, nature again shows her providence, for in those regions sweets are produced more abundantly.

In one of these lectures, published one years ago, Dr. Reeder, head of the Home Health club, said:

"In short, sugar is, after meat, bread and butter, easily our next most important and necessary food. You can put the matter to a test very easily. Just leave off the pie, pudding or other desserts at your lunch or mid-day meal. You will be astonished to find how quickly you will feel "empty" again, and how "unfinished" the meal will seem. You can't get any workingman to accept a pail without pie in it. And he is absolutely right. The only thing that can take the place of sugar here is beer or wine. It is a significant fact that the free lunch counters run in connection with bars furnish every imaginable thing except sweets. Even the restaurants and lunch grills attached to saloons or bars often refuse to serve desserts of any sort. They know their business. The more sugar and sweets a man takes at a meal the less alcohol he wants. Conversely, nearly every drinking man will tell you that he has lost his taste for sweets. The more candy a nation consumes the less alcohol."

The only trouble as to candy, and other sweets, for children or grown folks, as to that, is that the sweets are often eaten in too large quantities and at the wrong time. If taken after meals it is good and wholesome, but the same quantity and quality taken an hour before a meal may cause serious disorders in the stomach, and it will certainly affect, deleteriously, the appetite for other foods.

A good authority has said: "Give children plenty of pure candy, taffy and butterscotch and they will have little need of cod liver oil."

Club Notes.

Dear Doctor: Will you please tell me what tuberculosis of the blood is, what are the symptoms, and what can be done for it, and is it curable?

L. W. C.

There is no such condition as specific tuberculosis of the blood known to medical science. There may be germs of tuberculosis in the blood but they come from some specific portion of the body. The recognized places in which tuberculosis is found are as follows: —Lungs, (in the adult) 2—lymphatic glands, bones and joints (in children), 3—intestines, 4—peritoneum, 5—kidneys, 6—brains, 7—spleen, 8—liver, 9—generative organs, 10—pericordium, 11—heart. If treatment of the proper kind is applied promptly most cases are curable. In my Home Health Club book Vol 2, I have devoted several chapters to the subject and described the best and most practical methods of home treatment and means of precaution. All of the pages of an entire issue of this paper would be required in which to give a comprehensive answer to all your brief but pertinent questions. Would suggest that you send for the book and study the subject direct.

Dear Doctor:

Is there anything that will reduce fat; am very fat around shoulders, neck and bust. M. B.

Live on buttermilk for three months, one half pint every two hours while awake. No, you will not starve, won't even get hungry, but you will get strong, yes strong enough to take a rough and tumble with anyone who is foolish enough to laugh at you. A piece of zweibach three times daily at the regular mealtime will be a help, but it must be eaten dry and chewed until it becomes liquid in the mouth. While you grow strong and well, the fat will melt away and you will again be normal. Surplus fat is dangerous burden and altogether unsightly. Get rid of it. The cause is twofold; Too much food, not enough chewing.

All readers of this publication are at liberty to write for information pertaining to the subject of health at any time. Address all communications to the Home Health Club, La Porte, Indiana, U. S. A., with name and address in full and at least four cents in postage.

Both Roosevelt and Taft Claim County Which Will Decide Primary.

CLARK AND WILSON BEAT HARMON

Democratic Voters Leave Ohioan Far in the Rear—Baltimore Gave Missourian More Than Other Two Combined.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—Speaker Champ Clark and Theodore Roosevelt carried the Maryland primaries on the face of incomplete returns received up to midnight from all the counties of the state. The indicated vote was: Republicans: Roosevelt 66, Taft 63. Democrats: Clark 69, Wilson, 33, Harmon 4, uncertain 23.

Majority necessary to control the state convention, 65.

At midnight both the Roosevelt and Taft campaign committees were claiming the five delegates from Prince George county and indications were that this county would decide the Maryland Republican primary.

Roosevelt and Clark were well ahead in the early returns, but later the contest between Taft and Roosevelt became close.

Harmon Gets One County.

The Democrtic fight showed that Clark and Wilson were far ahead of Harmon, who was sure of only one county and four state delegates.

Clark and Roosevelt leaped into the lead early with complete delegations from Baltimore city, which gave them each 28 delegates. Clark's preferential vote in this city was greater than that of Harmon and Wilson combined. He defeated Wilson by nearly three to one, and the New Jersey governor was ahead of Gov. Harmon by two to one.

The small vote polled by Gov. Harmon removed the possibility that the Democratic fight might be settled in the state convention. Had none of the Democratic candidates won a majority of the delegates, the delegates instructed for the candidate with the smallest following would have been free to swing to one of the other candidates and control the convention after the first ballot.

Didn't Tabulate Vote.

The popular preferential vote was lost sight of and probably will not be tabulated immediately. Under the Maryland law the affiliated voters of the two parties instructed the delegates to the state convention by the preference vote of each county. A majority of this vote in a county instructed that county's delegates accordingly.

The delegates to the state convention must vote as instructed for a solid delegation to the national convention. This means that the successful candidate carries to the national convention 16 votes in a block, bound by the law to stand by him as long as in their conscientious judgment there is a possibility of his being nominated.

GREAT WRITER IN JEOPARDY

Charles Dickens Once Threatened With Arrest for Attempting to Pass Counterfeit Money.

One night when Dickens had retired at Gad's Hill he found he could not sleep. So he got up, dressed and determined to walk to London, about thirty miles away. He reached the suburbs early in the morning and applied at an early coffee house for some refreshments. When he had finished he gave the proprietor a sovereign, the smallest coin he had with him.

"It's a bad un," said the man, biting at it and trying to twist it in all directions, "and I shall give you in charge."

The coin did have a suspicious look. Dickens had carried some substance in his pocket which had oxidized it. Seeing that matters looked awkward, he said,

"But I am Charles Dickens!"

"Come, that won't do; any man could say he was Charles Dickens. How do I know?"

The man had been victimized a week previous and would take no more chances. At length Dickens suggested that they go to a chemist's and have the coin tested. A chemist was finally found when the shops had opened. The chemist immediately recognized the novelist, in spite of his dusty appearance, and the coffee house keeper was satisfactorily convinced that he had not been entertaining a confidence man.

WENT HURRIEDLY ON HIS WAY

Daring Man Threw Metaphorical Brick Into Assemblage and Didn't Wait for Effects.

"Shall we not carry on this fight until we have mere man reduced to a hemipode?" said the suffragette orator.

"We shall. But what is a hemipode, anyway?" spoke up one of the assemblage.

"The black-necked hemipode is a bird about the size of a sparrow that lives in Madagascar. A friend out there sent me a pair of them. The male hemipode alone sits on the nest of eggs and hatches the young and takes care of them until grown up," the orator explained.

"Wouldn't that be lovely?" exclaimed one of the audience.

"There are birds down in South America called groove-billed aris. They build a large communal nest of sticks, and several females sit on the eggs in company, so that their conversation need not stop because of hatching. I'd like to have a vote as to which is the more popular," said a daring man near the door.

But he didn't wait for a vote.—New York Sun.

Passing of the "Writing Masters."

One sometimes regrets the passing of the "writing master" of the schools of the last century, for even in these days of typewriting the signature must be handwritten. There seems to be a sort of slap-dash, conceited belief among the users of type machines that everybody can recognize his personal signature. This is an unfounded belief, and in a drawer by his side there are letters signed—by unknown persons who, their never learned to write t[illegible] neir. Their bankers may pos[illegible]sibly nize the hieroglyphic. The Blackstone Vacuum Massage Machine

For Perfect Face, Scalp or Body Massage in the Home

BLACKHEADS. These unsightly blotches upon the complexion are almost instantly removed by application of the vacuum cup. The waste matter is drawn out of the pores and the blood is circulated freely, building new skin tissue to erase the large pore openings, and consequently eliminating the opportunity for further waste to gather. The relief is permanent.

PIMPLES. Many a beautiful skin texture is made ugly and unsightly by the presence of pimples and eruptions. The skin, if properly cared for, carries off all such matter through the action of the respiratory pores. Open these millions of organs and the eruptions cease, as the waste is carried off without being permitted to gather in clusters, forming the disagreeable pimples, etc. Such complexion defects are wholly unnecessary, as THE BLACKSTONE VACUUM MASSAGER immediately opens all pores and stimulates the skin to its normal, healthy action.

WRINKLES. These are commonly called evidences of care—more often you will find it to be carelessness, instead. The flesh tissues beneath the skin, being robbed of regular and sufficient blood supply, waste away and naturally leave the skin to crease up into wrinkles. Firm, well nourished flesh never wrinkles nor sags into unsightly folds. THE BLACKSTONE VACUUM treatment brings blood to the shriveled flesh tissues and recuperates them, filling out and beautifying the skin with firm, well rounded lines and healthy, radiating complexion.

Let me Explain the Machine fully--It will cost you nothing to investigate

KANSAS GOT RAIN, WIND AND HAIL

Wild Rumors of Cyclones Could Not be Substantiated.

NEAR CLOUDBURST AT ABILENE

Three Inches of Water Fell in Two Hours—Smoky Hill River Rising a Foot an Hour—Live Stock Lost.

Topeka, May 7.—Eastern and central Kansas got a heavy rain late in the afternoon. It was almost a cloudburst at Abilene, where three inches of rain fell in two hours. A rain of half an inch or better is reported generally east of McPherson and Salina and through the northern and eastern tiers of counties.

The rain came up with a high wind and did slight damage to trees and more to telegraph and telephone lines.

The wind was gusty and blew at 40 miles an hour at times, and then dropped to almost a calm.

A dozen towns were reported devastated by tornadoes but the reports could not be substantiaed. The railroad and telephone companies made every effort to verify the rumors, but learned of no serious damage.

Some hail accompanied both the morning and the night storms, but it did no damage. Not even a window was broken, and gardeners said vegetable patches were not damaged.

Smoky Hill River Rising.

Salina, Kan., May 7.—The Smoky Hill river began rising rapidly here as a result of the heavy rains and stood ten feet above normal and was rising a foot an hour. Many cattle and hogs are being carried down stream by the flood.

Heavy Hail Hurts Fruit.

Junction City, Kan., May 7.—Almost an inch of rain fell here within 30 minutes. It was accompanied by one of the heaviest hailstorms in many years. The fruit is believed to have been damaged, but the wheat is unharmed.

Arkansas Tops Its Banks.

Sterling, Kan., May 7.—An inch of rain fell here. Ten miles southwest near Thurber, the hail was heavier, and damaged the fruit. The Arkansas river is rising and will be out of its banks by morning.

The locomotive was nearing a trestle when the engine seemed to lurch into the air and plunge down the embankment. It was followed by a baggage car, a day coach and three tourist sleepers.

The three remaining tourist sleepers were turned into a hospital and morgue. A special relief train was rushed from Hattiesburg, arriving within an hour.

FILMS TO SHOW NATURE'S WORK

EDISON WORKING ON SERIES FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES.

School Children of Future Will See Processes of Nature and Chemical Changes.

Orange, N. J., May 7.—Thomas A. Edison expects to spend $3,000,000 and devote eight years to the work of perfecting a repertoire of educational films that will meet the requirements he has set to make the moving picture useful in the school room. A brief story of what the inventor has done so far and will do in the future was told to the New England society by Arthur D. Chandler, president of the Orange board of education.

He is confident that the moving picture film is destined to become an indispensable adjunct to the school room. Edison has already had a number of films made, among them one which shows, magnified millions of times, the process of chemical crystallization of certain substances.

To watch the process as shown by that film, according to Mr. Chandler, is to be deeply impressed with the fact that there is something controlling even the action of inorganic matter, and he said he felt that the scientists in their searching might yet find out God.

Edison expects to send into all corners of the earth gathering material for his films. When his task is finished the pupils of the future will have with activities of the world and of nature that adults today have not even dreamed of.

FREIGHT MEN'S STRIKE IS QUIET

International Secretary Gives Notice Law Violators Must Pay Their Own Fines.

Chicago, May 7.—Quiet marked the freight handlers' strike in Chicago. The 5,000 men who quit work heeded the request of their leaders and remained away from the freight houses.

"Come to your meetings every morning and come sober," the international secretary, J. J. Flynn told a meeting of strikers. "You can't win by throwing bricks and coupling pins. Take your wives and babies to the parks and enjoy a vacation. If any man is arrested for violating the law, he will have to pay his own fine. You are in the right, and you will win; but you must win throught your intelligence."

SEDALIA CLEANUP NOT ENDED

Mr. Jordan says there will be no flies where there is no filth, and with no flies there will be less disease.
